EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Occupational Training & Supply, Inc., founded in 1990, delivers comprehensive safety and operational solutions through two divisions: safety & compliance training and full-service industrial supply and equipment distribution. Our training division provides hands-on environmental and workplace safety programs, including custom courses designed for regulatory or contract compliance. The supply division offers a full range of industrial safety supplies, equipment and materials, including PPE, jobsite tools, abatement products, facility maintenance items, and weatherization supplies. By combining expert instruction with quality products, we help organizations stay compliant, fully equipped, and safe.
